LARGE NAVAL STATION

WILL BE MADE AT SINGAPORE

New Anglo-Japanese Treaty Calls For Large British Naval Force in the Far Eastern Seas.

London, Sept. 25.—It is definitely announced that Singapore will be made a first class naval base with great dock yards and arsenals. This is necessitated by the terms of the new Anglo-Japanese treaty, one clause being said to exist requiring Great Britain to keep up a larger naval force in the Far Eastern waters. Admiral Ty is preparing plans for improvements which will cost several millions to execute.

CHINESE OFFICIALS WOUNDED

Pekin, China, Sept. 25.—At the Pekin railway station today, as the train carrying one of the four missions ordered abroad to study foreign political methods was leaving, a bomb was exploded inside a private car, killing four minor officers and wounding over twenty other persons. The wounded include Prince Tsai Tchen, who heads the most important of missions, and Fu Ting Fang, a former minister to the U. S.

The perpetrator of the outrage, who was in the car, was blown to pieces. The affair has created a profound sensation and causes apprehension regarding the safety of members of the court and leading officials of the government. The Government offices and railways are strongly guarded.

SACRED CONCERT

Nearly two thousand people attended the sacred concert given by Clark's orchestra in the Thistle rink on Sunday evening. A number who objected to the presence as performers of the minstrel troupe at present playing here and to encores and applause, left early, missing one of the finest musical treats of the year. The orchestra were in splendid form and rendered their numbers with great ecstacy. Little Miss Jessie Cameron was enthusiastically received, singing "The Choir Boy" and "Papa." Mr. F. Lavoy's song "The Palms," Robt. Hutton's flute solo and W. Clark's cornet solo, "The Lost Chord," were enthusiastically received.

The orchestra is composed of the following talented musicians: J. T. Richardson, violin (leader); Mrs. Richardson, pianist; W. Clark, cornet; F. Wilson, trombone; C. Jones, cello; W. Pionwright, bass; R. Hutton, flute; F. Shanks, 1st violin; G. Watkins, drums.

At future concerts encores and applause will not be allowed.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

William Morfitt was elected first mayor of Claresholm by a large majority.

Prof. Frank Wrigley resigned his position as choirmaster at Knox church at Portage and is going to the Presbyterian church at Calgary.

Wm. Bartlett, alias "Texas" has been sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary by Judge Street for robbing a saloon keeper in London, Ont.

"Gypsy" Smith, the noted English evangelist, has consented to hold a series of meetings in Winnipeg this fall at the invitation of the city ministers.

The Canadian Pacific crop report shows 15 to 30 per cent. threshing completed, with a yield running from 20 to 30 bushels per acre, remarkably high.

The Dominion fishery cruiser Vigilant has arrived at Port Stanley for coal. Fifteen American tugs operating with fish nets in Canadian waters were seen by the Vigilant on Tuesday, but owing to lack of coal the vessel could not give chase. Yankee poachers are more venturesome every day, knowing that the Vigilant cannot be everywhere at once.

POLITICAL

Ald. Brockbank may be the labor candidate in Calgary.

Regina Liberals nominated J. F. Bole to oppose Laird.

Toronto Telegram: Manitoba politicians are at; Manitoba politicians are at.

Toronto Telegram: Hon. Robert Rogers speaks of Manitoba's troubles. Manitoba has few more troubles than the Roblin Government, of which Hon. Robert so proudly forms a part.

Wetaskiwin Times: At a meeting of the Wetaskiwin Liberal Executive Committee held on Tuesday evening, it was decided to call a convention of the liberals of the district to be held in the town hall, Wetaskiwin, on Saturday, October 14th, at one o'clock p.m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the newly constituted riding of Wetaskiwin in the province of Alberta.

HOCKEY

The prospects of seeing some splendid hockey in Edmonton this winter are very bright. Last year's team, with the exception of Sherman and Matheson, are available, Dobson, the crack Strathcona left wing man, has taken up his residence in town and Edmonton's notoriously weak spot will be filled by him. It is said that the valiant Ed. Sibbald has secured a position with a local firm and will wear an Edmonton sweater. Powers the crack cover point and captain of the Quebec team last year, will also be in town. Armistead, who played with the champion Nelson team, is in town, as are also several other good men.

Strathcona is getting ready for the struggle and will have last year's team with the exception of Dobson. Sherman will don the red and white as will also McArthur of Lachine, Quebec. The contests will be filled with the old time vim and some spirited games will be played.

The Edmonton junior team are looking forward to the season with high hopes. They played well together last season, and as they are all here, except Matheson, will doubtless work out a combination that will be a pattern, possibly for the seniors. Fast skaters, good stick handlers and ready players they all are and with the added experience and weight of a year's growth, great things are looked forward to from them.

CRICKET

One of the matches in the series for the Ochsner Cup was played on the N. W. M. P. grounds at Fort Saskatchewan on Saturday, the 23rd inst., resulting in a win for the Fort by 35 runs. This now makes the Fort and Edmonton even in the cup events, each scoring seven points with each one match yet to play with Strathcona. Indications point strongly to a tie and a hard fight in the final struggle for the cup.

Following is the score in Saturday's match:

Coalitionists Obtain Concessions but Kossuth Declares these are Insufficient and Will Blockade Business.

Vienna, Sept. 25.—The Emperor received in audience yesterday five leaders of the Hungarian coalition party and intimated to them that he would consent to an enquiry into the present economic relations of Austria and Hungary by parliamentary committees for purposes of revision, but refused to permit a discussion of the dual language question in the army. Count Francis Kossuth, leader of the coalition forces declares that these concessions are insufficient and the present deadlock will therefore continue with small prospect of the necessary estimates being voted.

Moose Jaw Signal: Moose Jaw will get the much desired squadron of mounted rifles. In a recent communication received by Mr. A. E. Armstrong, who has been much interested in the movement, Col. Evans, of Winnipeg informs him that the suggestion was approved of by General Lake, during his recent visit to the West. Col. Evans makes the further announcement that he is in a position to organize the squadron as soon as he is assured that the necessary material for it exists. It will consist of six officers and sixty-nine non-commissioned officers and men. No difficulty should be met with in endeavoring to secure the necessary recruits. Troops of half troops will probably be organized in the city, at Buffalo Lake, Caron and Stony Beach. Mr. Armstrong would like to communicate with persons of military experience who are willing to join the squadron.

PROVINCIAL RIGHTS

The limit of the ridiculous as well as the hypocritical is probably reached when a disunionist journal undertakes to arouse the Methodists of Alberta against the Provincial Government by asserting that Alberta Liberals in supporting the Autonomy Bill are violating the principles laid down by the Alberta Methodist conference which met in Calgary some two months since.

At that conference the ministerial and lay delegates representing this denomination in Alberta embodied their views on Provincial Rights in the following resolutions:

(1) Our firm conviction that one system of national schools, wholly and entirely under the control of the state, is in the best interests of the country.

(2) That educational and other matters, as outlined in the British North America Act, should be left entirely in the hands of the provinces.

(3) That this conference stands unalterably committed to the doctrine of provincial rights.

Probably no better expression could be given of the views of the Liberal party in regard to this important matter than the resolutions quoted. It is no discredit to Methodists or other denominations to say that the discovery of the existence of which has come to be known as "provincial rights" must be credited to the leaders of Liberalism and that the long and bitter fights which have been waged in assertion and defence of these principles have been borne by the Liberal party. It is because of the warfare which was begun and has been continued by the Liberals of Canada on this behalf that the doctrine of Provincial Rights has come to be engrained in the minds of the Canadian people as one of the basic principles of our governmental system, one of the commonest axioms of our political life.

The Liberal party stands today as always, for the possession and exercise of all the powers intended by the framers of the constitution to be placed in the hands of the Provinces; stands moreover for the principle that those rights should be and are asserted in the provincial charter, defined beyond dispute and guaranteed beyond infringement or violation by solemn and obligatory compact.

We have "One system of national schools wholly and entirely under the control of the State," which Liberals believe to be in "the best interests of the country." Believing such they stand for the definite perpetuation of that system in the Province of Alberta.

"Educational and other matters, as outlined in the British North America Act," are "left entirely in the hands of the provinces." Such being the case, the Liberal party stands for the harmonious co-operation of all classes and creeds of our composite populace in working out our provincial destiny, as opposed to a groundless policy calculated to create dissension and hostility for the purpose of party advantage.

The Liberals "stand unalterably committed to the doctrine of Provincial rights" and for the maintenance of the Provincial constitution under which these rights are asserted, defined and guaranteed. They are committed to that doctrine by the traditions of their party, by the spirit of their belief and by the letter of the bill by which those rights have been claimed, specified and irrevocably secured to Alberta.

Not only are educational matters left entirely in the hands of the provinces but the educational system which the Territorial people have framed and under which they have progressed in peace for so many years is continued, not at the pleasure or necessity of Provincial politicians but as a permanent condition of our Provincial establishment asserted and safeguarded by the explicit wording of the Provincial constitution. It is because the educational system of Alberta has been thus removed from the sphere of intrigue, change and manipulation that the assault is being made upon the Liberal party today. That party has been guilty, undoubtedly and admittedly of so framing the autonomy bill that on the one hand the Conservatives of Alberta will never be able to manipulate the educational question for party advantage as the Conservatives of Manitoba have done, and on the other hand that Federal Conservatives will never be able to attempt to saddle upon this province a remedial bill establishing a school system which Alberta does not want. For having thus thrown about the educational system of this province a legal barrier alike against provincial modifiers and Federal coercionists the Liberals are held up to scorn and criticism. In assailing this barrier the Conservatives of Alberta are giving one more evidence of the unchanging spirit and purpose which stands revealed in the traditions of the party. To leave an open door for future emergencies; an uncertainty whereon might be created an issue in the hour of need, an indefiniteness of compact the skillful misinterpretation of which might afford a party advantage in the days to come, this has been the purpose of those who now assail Liberalism because it has stood for the final and definite solution of the school question in accord with the wishes of the people of this province.

—Fort Saskatchewan Reporter: Large quantities of timber are on the ground for the bridge, and the work is being pushed in the manner characteristic of the C. N. R. Two pile-driving crews are working on the two thousand feet of trestlework from the bridge to the hills, and piles have been driven for about 1,000 feet. Scows are being constructed on which to place the machinery for the driving of piles for the support of the temporary bridge across the river. The grade is now completed through the town itself, and only a few teams are now working between the Fort and Edmonton.

NORTHERN INDEPENDENCE

[Correspondence]

The farmers in this part have been fortunate with their grain this year, as it has not been either injured by frost or hail.

Miss Pearl Smith has just returned from Edmonton, where she has been staying for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Elliott and son have recently returned from a short visit in town.

The Rev. Telfer and Swererton, the two Methodist ministers of the Pembina district have recently opened a charge at Edson.

Some from this vicinity attended the annual picnic at Edson, one of our young men carrying off the first prize in the running race.

Mr. Dives is very busy in the hay field.

We are pleased to say that one of our neighbors, F. N. Reece, has now received his appointment as Justice of the Peace from Regina. And now we suppose if any of the neighbors want to swear, he would be glad to have them come before him and swear properly.

WESTERN CANADA'S TRIUMPH

(Rexia Leader)
The Western members of Parliament demand that the Federal Government should recognize our right to the public domain.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that the immigration service of the Dominion which costs about $750,000 per annum, should be continued and paid for from Ottawa.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that the R. N. W. M. P. force, which costs the Dominion about $500,000 annually be continued and that the Western provinces be relieved from policing the plains.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that the Dominion Government continue its policy of granting free lands to homesteaders and of reserving the lands for settlers.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that the new provinces should be given ample compensation for the lands and a sufficient revenue for all Government purposes.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that an additional sum of about half a million dollars be set aside for public buildings.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that there should be a "settlement" of the school question in the interests of the peace and progress of the new provinces.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that the existing school system which provides for full state control and which is satisfactory to the people of the West, be continued.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded that there should be no uncertainty as to the rights and privileges to be preserved to minority school supporters.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
They demanded from the Federal Government a promise that the unjust and onerous C. P. R. tax exemption would be removed.

THEIR DEMAND WAS GRANTED
Never before in the history of Canada has there been such a triumph. The West said what it wanted and got it. It has been truly said that the Constitution given us is "Legislation for the West and by the West."

—Plaiadesler: An unfortunate accident befell one of Thos. H. Stewart's threshing machines yesterday afternoon as it was being taken to Clover Bar settlement to begin the season's operations. The traction engine had in tow the water tank and separator and in making the curve near the top of the west bank of Fulton's Creek on the base line road tumbled over the embankment, the water tank and separator falling on top of it. Fortunately the engineer, fireman, and other hands escaped without injury, but the machinery is badly damaged and it is a serious task to get them up the hill and on the road again. The incident calls to mind the great need of the opening of the blind line road to Clover Bar which avoids that precipitous and always dangerous hill as well as others.

PRAIRIE FIRES

Editor Bulletin:—The time for prairie and bush fires is again. There are a number of us who have experienced losses by those fires in the past years.

I think every settler and every rancher and every business man should take an interest in preventing these fires, especially in the fall of the year when the weather is dry and there is so much undergrowth to carry fires.

Also the whole country's yield for the season is at stake. The last few years ranchers have suffered severely as well as other settlers. Now I claim the person or persons who starts the first fire is the principle cause of all the fires in his district. For as soon as a farmer or rancher sees a fire, to save himself, he back fires. Then all concerned back fire. The consequence is the whole country is in a blaze. But I say don't back fire, but all and every one concerned make haste to the fire, and put it out and find out the man who started the fire and have him sent to Stony Mountain. The country is far, far, better rid of such people. Women and children have barely saved their lives from these fires. Any necessary burning can and should be done in the spring months.

Forest Ranger.

BEAVER LAKE WEST

[Correspondence]

Tofield, Sept. 20.—Rev. A. J. Atkinson, wife and family, of Ponoka, formerly of West Beaver Lake are spending a month's holiday among friends at the lake. They are thinking of taking a trip to the old country from whence they came.

Mrs. R. A. McKenzie of Lagan leaves today for Calgary and the coast on a visit to members of her family.

Henry Woods has started his annual thrashing tour. He began at Tofield on September 15. The grain is turning out splendidly this year. Oats are a fine crop. Both wheat and barley are good samples.

Many land seekers are passing through the district these days looking up opportunities of good investments, and some are buying with the view of locating. The strip of land in Townships 51 and 52 Range 19 recently thrown open for homestead entry was all taken in a few days. There was quite a race for Edmonton when the news came that homesteads were available in the strip mentioned, amusing to some, exciting to some and disappointing to others. Even the race was and the truth of the old adage "The early bird gets the worm," was aptly proved.

J. C. Phillips is doing a little in the real estate line these days. Being located at the point where the Edmonton-Beaver Lake line connects with the main road leading through the district, and, as it emerges from the Beaver Hills.

Miss G. Francis gives an afternoon tea-party tomorrow to a number of her young lady friends.

—The C. P. R. company are planning to provide an additional wire north from Calgary, running through the Edmonton and Calgary districts to reach all the outlying portions of this section of the country. In fact along every new line of the C.P.R. it is the intention of the telegraph company to provide telegraph communication. On the Wetaskiwin and Lacombe branches the wires will be operated this fall.

—Through the efforts of Organizer D. Grant of the Canadian Order of Foresters, the local court will soon become a strong fraternal organization in Edmonton. A regular meeting has not been held during the past few months, it has been decided to meet regularly on every second and fourth Tuesday in each month in the Sandison Hall. All members of the Canadian Order of Foresters belonging to sister courts are cordially invited to attend the meeting to be held next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

—That the boundaries of the Masonic jurisdiction may agree with the boundaries of the province, the Masons through the representatives of the lodges situated in the provinces of Alberta have decided to organize a Masonic Grand Lodge for their province, and have called a meeting for the completion of the organization, which will be held at Calgary on October the twelfth next. Mr. W. G. Scott, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba and under which Grand Lodge the Alberta Lodges are at present working, has been invited to be present. The Masonic Lodges in the province of Saskatchewan will also, no doubt, form a Grand Lodge for their province.

WHY THE C. P. R. SUPPORTS CONSERVATIVES

Some eastern newspapers are expressing surprise that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company should take a positive and decided stand in the present provincial elections in Alberta and Saskatchewan in favor of the Conservatives or non-party candidates, by whichever name they may choose to style themselves, and against the Liberals. That the big railway corporation is taking this position cannot be questioned in face of the evidence forthcoming day by day, and the reason for it should not be such a matter of surprise either when all the facts are sized up and duly weighed.

First, to enumerate some of the evidence that the C. P. R. are out in active support of the Tory or non-party candidates. In Alberta Mr. R. B. Bennett, C. P. R. Solicitor, is the chosen leader of the Conservative forces. Mr. Bennett's connections are all with corporations, he being the solicitor for the Bell Telephone Co. as well as the C. P. R. In fact so notoriously is this the case that the Calgary Herald, the chief Conservative paper in Alberta, in referring to the probable election of a Conservative leader, said: "Mr. Bennett's corporation connections are such as may render his acceptance of the position of Conservative leader inadvisable, if not impossible." However, the influence brought to bear was so great that Mr. Bennett got the position.

Apart altogether from the fact that the C. P. R. and Conservatives have always been closely allied, there is the recent development of the G. T. P. contract by which the Liberal party has arranged to bring the C. P. R.'s greatest and most successful competitor into and through Western Canada, and the latest Liberal crime is that the G. T. P. is allowed to so locate its main line that it will come into direct competition with the C. P. R. In this connection one director of the C. P. R. has termed it "an outrage," and another "gentleman in close touch with the C. P. R." says that in the approaching election in the Territories "the big railway will lend every possible assistance to Haultain and his followers."

Furthermore, the Conservatives, with hardly an exception, stand by and rendered every assistance in their power to give the C. P. R. an absolute monopoly in Southern British Columbia by voting to kill the V. V. & E. railway project, and the C. P. R. are under obligations to return the favor now.

But, we hear someone say, that is the old C. P. R. hogboggan again and there is nothing in it. Possibly such a scoffer will give some weight to a consideration of the reasons why in their own interests the C. P. R. will support the Tories and endeavor to defeat the Grigs. There will be many large and very important questions to come before the new provincial legislatures which will both directly and indirectly affect the C. P. R.

In regard to the Hudson's Bay Railway the Conservative policy spells "delay." They declare that "negotiations" should be entered into with the other Western provinces "with a view to the building of such a road." This not only means delay, but, in the event of a policy of construction being decided upon, the saddling of the whole cost on the West. The Liberals on the other hand declare for the "early construction of a line to Hudson's Bay" and that the road should be built by the Dominion Government as a federal work in the interest of Canada as a whole, and that it "shall be the immediate duty" of the provincial authorities to press for the early completion of the project. The C. P. R. cares not a jot or tittle for the Conservative policy of "negotiations" and "provincial construction" for it well knows that other questions will occupy provincial attention and energy for some time, but it does fear—and rightly so, judging from its experience with the G. T. P.—the early construction of the line by the Dominion as a Federal work. This is reason No. 1 for the C. P. R. support of the Conservatives.

No matter which party controls the first Provincial Legislature the question of the C. P. R. tax exemption will be dealt with. The Conservatives say in effect, "We approve of the giving of the exemptions in the first place but believe they should not be saddled exclusively upon the western provinces," but that the "Dominion as a whole" should bear the burden. They are willing that the new province should bear a share and, as our population increases, an ever-increasing share of the burden. On the other hand the Liberals declare without equivocation that they never approved of these exemptions; do not approve of them today, and that the "earliest steps should be taken by the provincial authorities towards bringing about the removal of this unjust exemption by the Federal Government." The Tories favor the exemption, but want a portion of them shifted to other parts of Canada to bear. The Liberals are totally and irreconcilably opposed to the exemption and demand their absolute removal. Which policy would be the C. P. R. policy? This is reason No. 2 for C. P. R. support of the Conservatives.

The Conservatives declare themselves opposed to accepting the financial grants made to the new provinces in lieu of lands and in favor of the transfer of the lands to be administered by the Provinces themselves. There is no denying the fact that in order to obtain a Provincial revenue under these conditions the lands would have to be administered in other words for settlement purposes; in other words free homesteading would have to be abolished and the lands sold. With millions of acres of land for sale would or would not the C. P. R. like to see free homesteading done away with? If a settler could not obtain free land but was forced to purchase it, would the C. P. R. not stand to make by it? Their lands are adjacent to their railway line and hence would be in greater demand than much of the Government land far removed from railways. This is reason No. 3 for C. P. R. support to the Conservatives.

The Conservatives declare in favor of refusing to accept the present schools constitution and to endeavor to have it destroyed. To destroy the Saskatchewan Act means to throw it back into the Federal arena and if it is thrown back into the Dominion House a fierce racial and religious agitation will follow, and Dominion politics will become once more what they were in the years preceding the Laurier settlement of the Manitoba school question, and what they were in Ontario during the past summer. Instead of the Government being left free to devote their undivided energies to the rapid completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway they will be kept busy with a fierce political agitation designed to bring about their downfall. The downfall of the Laurier Government would, if we are to accept Mr. Bennett's own pledge, mean the stopping of building operations on the G. T. P., the expropriation of the line already built, and a new railway policy to be decided upon. Nothing would please the C. P. R. better than to hamper and obstruct the G. T. P. That has been their aim ever since the project was first mooted right down to their protest of two weeks ago against the location of the line west of Fort St. Pierre, and in every move the C. P. R. has made it has had the backing of Conservative leaders and Conservative papers. The C. P. R. know they can continue to rely on Tory support. Realizing that a school agitation will hamper G. T. P. construction the C. P. R. are out hot-footed for a new school question. This is reason No. 4 for C. P. R. support of the Conservatives.

He suspected Herman, who has been in different times, but who has been farming and running a blacksmith shop sixteen miles east of Red Deer recently.
